Structured Course:

This is a dance residential like no other. Unlike many other dance events, the Real Music Academy - Dance Residential Course is structured and detailed yet allows plenty of time for informal practice and performance with live music. Say goodbye to unclear and conflicting information.

In-Depth Tuition:

There will be in-depth sessions covering the following specialist areas of Egyptian dance music: the legacy of Oum Kalthoum, Warda, Mayada, Fairouz, Abdel Halim Hafez, Farid Al
Atrash, Wael Kfoury and others; Mawal; Improvisation; Taqasim; History & Context; Arabic singing; Communication & Interaction with musicians; Song Analysis and... our 'Arabic Karaoke Night'!

Nothing is impossible,
the word itself says,
I am possible.

Qualified Course Leader:

Described as "one of the most interesting and versatile percussionists working in the UK today" (fROOTS) Guy Schalom has near on 30 years of experience playing for dancers. He leads Europe's foremost Egyptian band, the Baladi Blues Ensemble, and is in demand internationally for both his drumming and his incisive and empowering teaching.

Guest Musicians:

All sessions feature live music from Guy Schalom and his colleagues in the Baladi Blues Ensemble, including accordion, voice/oud, ney and of course tabla/darbuka.

Performance Opportunity:

Improve your confidence and experience with live music in a supportive environment by performing with Guy Schalom and his colleagues at Saturday night's Live Music Party!

Idyllic Environment:

Relax and focus on your dance at the beautiful Benslow Music centre. There will be time to reflect, meet other dancers and teachers and chat with the musicians during the meals, tea breaks and at the bar.
